Re: No. 01-20233 In re: Bruno

Dear Mr. Bruno:

This is a response to your letter of April 20, 2001. In that letter, you complain that the court erroneously considered your motion to recall the mandate in No. 99-20256 as a request for leave to file a successive habeas corpus petition. As stated in the court's letter of October 25, 2000, the Supreme Court has decided that motions to recall the mandate in cases such as yours are to be treated as requests for leave to file a successive habeas petition. The letter went on to state that if you wanted your motion treated that way, you had to inform us and you had to supply copies of documents from your previous habeas action. We did not receive a response from you, so no action was taken on your motion to recall the mandate.

On March 12, 2001, however, we received a motion for discovery from you. You indicated that this was being filed in No. 99-20256. That appeal is closed and no motions like the one you submitted can be filed in it. The motion for discovery asked for information that you said would help show that you are innocent of the crime you were convicted of. Therefore, that motion was treated as a request for leave to file a successive habeas petition. The court denied permission on April 3, 2001.

You further ask for advice how you should proceed in the future. The court cannot give legal advice to litigants.

Sincerely,

CHARLES R. FULBRUGE III, Clerk
